

JUDGE SHIELDS A WOMAN LOOTER LADEN WITH GEMS

Paroled in Custody of Her Lawyer Through Influence.

The bejeweled and elaborately gowned young woman who was arrested for shoplifting yesterday in keeping secret her identity today when arraigned in the Jefferson Market Court. Her father and brother, who are both Brooklyn men, also refused to make public their names and the name of the prisoner, who is said to be the wife of a wealthy man from whom she has separated.

Mark Alter appeared as counsel for the woman and obtained an adjournment of the hearing. The charge against the woman preferred by the linen merchant was that on three different occasions she had entered his store and stolen dollies and centre pieces worth $150. While committing the theft, they said, she had purchased about $30 worth of dollies.

When arrested yesterday afternoon in the Fifth Avenue shop, the young woman wore $2,000 worth of jewelry. The police took charge of this when she was sent to a cell in the Tenderloin station. It consisted of three diamond rings, a diamond brooch, pearl necklace with amethyst pendant and amethyst brooch surrounded by rubies. In her pocketbook was $8 in cash. Counsel for the woman declared to Magistrate Sweetser that the woman was of good family and asked that bail be set at $100, which he said he would furnish in cash at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Court consented to this, though the linen merchant protested that bail was too low. Then he paroled the prisoner in the lawyer's custody, settling the hearing for tomorrow.

ALBANY FUGITIVE CAUGHT IN LONDON.

City Employee, Charged with Stealing Public Funds, Jumped His Bail.

LONDON, March 27.—F. L. Laraway, alias E. L. Lee, has been arrested here at the request of the Albany, N. Y., police on a charge of grand larceny. He was arraigned in the Bow Street Police Court today and remanded for one week.

ALBANY, March 27.—Fred L. Laraway, who has been arrested in London on request of the Albany authorities, is wanted on two charges—grand larceny, second degree, and forger, third degree. He was employed as a clerk in the City Treasurer's office, and is charged with having failed to turn into the treasury money entrusted to him to be paid as taxes, and making false entries on the city's books.

He was released on bail, and failed to appear in court Feb. 21 last, the time set for his examination. He was traced to Montreal, thence to Liverpool, and finally to London, where it was reported he was staying with relatives. Officers from Albany County will be sent at once to London to bring Laraway back.

SAGE ASSESSMENT CUT TO $2,258,000

The Figures Originally Placed on Tax Books Were $50,000,000.

The assessment of the estate of Russell Sage, which was tentatively placed at $50,000,000, was today cut down to $2,258,000 when an agent of the estate called at the Tax Department. Much of the estate has been turned into bonds that are outside the jurisdiction of the Department of Taxes and Assessments, and this caused the big drop in the assessment. The assessment for the Sage estate was the biggest by far of all on the tax list. The books of the real and personal property taxable in the city will be open only until March 31. As the time is very short the Tax Department officers are daily crowded with those who have been delayed in awaiting their assessments or in having them reduced. All the Commissioners are busy morning and afternoon with hundreds of citizens who have to form lines to get into the various offices.

Helping Him On. (From the Philadelphia Ledger.) "Really," said Mr. Timm, "I've never dreamed of kissing a girl against her will. I never." "How fortunate!" exclaimed Miss Patience. "Dreams go by, contrary, you know."

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 80 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do so on the mother's watchfulness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
